ASX: Powering Australia's financial markets

Why join the ASX?

When you join ASX, you're joining a company with a strong purpose – to power a stronger economic future by enabling a fair and dynamic marketplace for all.

In your new role, you'll be part of a leading global securities exchange with a strong brand. We are known for being a trusted market operator and an exciting data hub.

Want to know why we are a great place to work, visit our careers page to learn more.

We are more than a securities exchange!

The ASX team brings together talented people from a diverse range of disciplines.

We run critical market infrastructure, with 1 in 3 people employed within technology. Yet we have a unique complexity of roles across a range of disciplines such as operations, program delivery, financial products, investor engagement, risk and compliance.

We're proud of the diversity of our organisation and the culture of inclusion that all our people help to build every day. Our employee-led groups are known for celebrating cultural and religious events, championing LGBTIQ+ inclusion, inspiring giving and volunteering, promoting gender equality, and wellbeing. We are an Employer of Choice for Gender Equality (WGEA) and a member of the Champions of Change Coalition for the advancement of gender equality in Australia.

About the team:

You will be part of a small but impactful team of seven regulatory and policy professionals, but also a key advisor to the Technology Division. As a member of the Regulatory Policy and Strategy Team, and the broader Office of the General Counsel, opportunities will exist for you to apply your policy and regulatory experience to a range of other matters when time permits. This position provides a unique opportunity to play an important role in supporting ASX's Technology Modernisation Strategy.

What you will be doing:

- > Working closely with the leadership teams for the Technology Division, you will drive engagement with ASX's regulatory agencies in alignment with the key project and program milestones to ensure timely and transparent communication of information.

- > Developing and executing against an engagement plan with ASX's regulatory agencies on key Technology initiatives consistent with ASX's regulatory engagement objectives.
- > Proactively engage with the regulatory agencies to understand their information needs and expectations regarding areas of focus for engagement.
- > Provide advice to the leadership teams for the Technology Division on the:
 - Policy and regulatory areas of focus of the agencies with respect to ASX's technology modernisation
 - Information to be provided to the regulatory agencies to ensure that material project developments and risks are communicated in a transparent and timely manner.
- > The coordination of, and preparation for, meetings with the regulatory agencies including the development of appropriate meeting materials.
- > Timely provision of key project and program documentation to the regulatory agencies, as required.

What you will bring:

- > Worked in senior roles providing regulatory and/or public policy advice, with experience in the public service or a regulated entity
- > Experience in the financial services industry and dealing with regulators in Australia or other jurisdictions
- > Experience in managing stakeholder engagement programs

Nice to have:

- > Experience in large regulatory change programs impacting both internal and external stakeholders
- > Experience operating in highly regulated environments
- > A strong understanding of the international regulatory landscape for financial market infrastructure

We make hiring decisions based on your skills, capabilities and experience, and how you'll help us to live our values. We encourage you to apply even if you don't meet all the criteria of this role. If you need any adjustments during the application or interview process to help you present your best self, please let us know.

At ASX Group, our diverse workforce is essential to build and maintain a fair and dynamic marketplace. We support flexible working and offer hybrid working options. Even if our roles are advertised as full-time, we encourage you to apply if you are interested in part-time or other flexible working arrangements.

We will arrange for successful candidates to have background checks, including reference and police checks completed as part of the on-boarding process.

Recruitment Agencies: ASX does not accept any unsolicited agency resumes and will not be responsible for any fees related to unsolicited resumes.
