

MEDIA RELEASE

4 July 2006

ASX Markets Supervision finalised

The composition of ASX Markets Supervision has been finalised with the appointment of Mr Peter Jollie to the board overseeing all ASX supervisory operations.

The appointment of Mr Jollie, an experienced company director and accountant, was announced by ASX Markets Supervision chairman Maurice Newman today.

He will join ASX Limited directors Maurice Newman, Michael Sharpe and Jillian Segal, and fellow independent external director Tom Parry, on the board.

All appointments are on a rolling 12-month basis.

Mr Jollie's biographical details are attached this release.

For further information:

Media:

Gervase Greene
Manager Corporate Relations
(BH) +61 2 9227 0464
(Mobile) 0419 496 703

OR

ASX Media Office
(BH) +61 2 9227 0410

Biography – Mr Peter Jollie

Peter Edward Jollie AM, FCA, FCA (England and Wales), FCPA, FAICD

External directorships and memberships:

- Director of Downer EDI
- Director of Reliance Retail
- Director of Travel.com.au Limited
- Director of NAFDA
- Syndicate Chairman CEO Institute

Skills, experience and expertise:

Mr Jollie has over 30 years' experience as an accountant and company director. He was a past President of the Institute of Chartered Accountants and Chairman of the Accountants Superannuation Fund Nominees. Mr Jollie served as CEO of P&O Containers, Chairman of the Prospect Water Treatment consortium and was Chairman of the Defence Housing Authority. Mr Jollie has also been involved in international trade, particularly in the Asia Pacific region, and has chaired Australia's committees to multilateral trade meetings. He was a member of the Trade Policy Advisory Committee to Ministers for Trade and was a member of the Finance Commission and Communications Commission for the Sydney 2000 Olympic Bid.
