To date there have been no enforcement matters commenced in respect of potential contraventions of the ASX and ASX 24 Operating Rules that have occurred after 1 August 2010.

There were four referrals made to ASIC during the month, one relating to a false or misleading information breach, two relating to trust breaches, and one a continuous disclosure breach.

Four circulars were released by the ASX Disciplinary Tribunal during the month. Copies of the Disciplinary Circulars are available online at: <http://www.asx.com.au/asx/research/disciplinaryAnnouncements.do?by=all>.

ASX Rule Changes, Waivers and Exemptions

Several changes to the ASX Operating Rules Procedures and Appendices came into effect during the month, dealing mainly with auditors' report requirements and ASX's enforcement and disciplinary processes. Further details on recent ASX Rule changes can be accessed online at: <http://www.asxgroup.com.au/rules-guidance-notes-and-waivers.htm>.

There were 75 waivers from the ASX Listing Rules granted during the month. Details of those waivers and exemptions can be accessed online at the Rules, Guidance Notes and Waivers page on the ASX Group website: <http://www.asxgroup.com.au/rules-guidance-notes-and-waivers.htm>.

⁵ ASIC is required, under section 792B(2)(c) of the Corporations Act 2001, to refer a matter to ASIC if it has reason to suspect that a person has committed, is committing, or is about to commit a significant contravention of the ASX Group's operating rules or the Corporations Act. It should be noted that a single referral may relate to more than one potential contravention. It should also be noted that the fact a matter has been referred to ASIC does not necessarily mean that a contravention has been committed or that ASIC will take enforcement proceedings in relation to it.

⁶ Prior to 1 August 2010, ASX was responsible for supervising the ASX and ASX 24 markets and their participants and for monitoring and enforcing compliance with the market rules for those markets. The responsibility for supervising the ASX and ASX 24 markets and their participants was transferred from ASX to ASIC on 1 August 2010 pursuant to the Corporations Amendment (Financial Market Supervision) Act 2010, and the market rules for the ASX and ASX 24 markets were effectively split into market integrity rules administered by ASIC and Operating Rules administered by ASX. However, ASX remains responsible for enforcing any breaches of the former market rules that occurred prior to 1 August 2010.
