

Media alert

17 March 2022

ASX options and futures market issue resolved

ASX24 is now fully operational, all contracts are open and ASX is operating as normal.

ASX can confirm that the issue was caused by a hardware fault, which has been resolved.

The issue was isolated to ASX24 and did not affect ASX Trade, i.e., the equities trading platform continued to operate normally.

ASX again apologises for the disruption caused.
