ANDREW TOBIN TO JOIN ASX AS CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

ASX Limited (ASX) announces that Andrew Tobin has been appointed its next Chief Financial Officer (CFO). Mr Tobin will start in the role on Monday, 5 September 2022.

Mr Tobin was previously CFO at Challenger Limited for nine years (2012-2021), responsible for numerous operational areas including finance, investor relations, treasury, operations and information technology. He was Deputy CFO prior to that and has also worked at CBA, MLC and KPMG.

Helen Lofthouse, ASX's Managing Director and CEO, said: "Andrew is an accomplished CFO and executive leader with more than 30 years' experience in various group finance and audit roles in Australia and Asia. He is an excellent addition to our team.

"His ability to think strategically and commercially, his partnership approach, and extensive expertise in financial markets and listed companies will add depth to the Executive Team and enhance our leadership culture."

Mr Tobin's appointment follows an extensive selection process, supported by global recruitment agency Egon Zehnder. He replaces Gillian Larkins who leaves ASX at the end of August.

ASX's strategy function will move to the CFO portfolio under Mr Tobin's leadership.
